

Loss Control Best Practice

Line of Business: All

Subject: Safety Management – Safety Incentive Programs

Purpose:

The purpose of this best practice is to provide resources to assist with the building of a safety incentive program.

Safety incentive programs have been in use for many years and can be effective in driving the desired behaviors conducive to a safe work environment for employees and the public.

The resources included in this best practice document will provide a framework for the critical elements necessary to build an effective safety incentive program and to avoid the pitfalls that can accompany the program if not properly managed.
